

Prize Bonds — Customer Facilitation Q&A Reference

SBP BSC Prize Bonds Unit — ICFS Prototype Knowledge Base

Premium Prize Bond

Q: What is premium prize bond?

A: Premium prize bond is newly launched national savings scheme where investor can earn prize money as well as profit.

Q: What is the profit rate of premium prize bond?

A: Profit rate of premium prize bond is 2.71% bi-annual, paid in March and September (per Ministry of Finance notification; subject to periodic revision).

Q: What is the meaning the term registered in Premium Prize Bond?

A: Prize bond registered in the name of investor that's why called premium Prize bond registered.

Q: How many draws in a year?

A: Four quarterly prize money draws in a year.

Q: Who can buy premium prize bond?

A: Any adult Pakistani Individual, Overseas Pakistani can buy premium prize bond.

Q: How can I claim my prize money?

A: No, application Forms required for claiming prize money, prize money directly credit to investor bank account.

Q: How can I claim my profit of premium prize bond?

A: No, application forms required for claiming profit earned from premium prize bond. The profit is directly credit to investor bank account.

Q: Can I transfer my premium prize bond to any one?

A: Yes, premium prize bond is transferable.

Q: Can I pledge my premium prize bond?

A: Yes, premium prize bond is pledge able

Q: Is there any limit in terms of time and investment?

A: No, there is no limit in investment and tenure

Q: How can I purchase the premium prize bond?

A: Can be purchased through Cash, Cheque, Pay-Order and Bank Draft from offices of the State Bank of Pakistan Banking-Services Corporations (SBP-BSC)

Q: What documents are required for premium prize bond purchase?

A: Copy of CNIC

Account Maintenance Certificate (A/C title, IBAN Number, status of A/C , Bank & Branch Name)

Tax Certificate in case of Filer

CNIC details of the Nominee are required at the time of premium prize bond purchase.

Q: Is there any facility for senior citizen and females?

A: Senior citizens and female applicants are requested to please contact the Counter Official without waiting for their turn as special.

Q: Application forms are same for individual or corporate clients?

A: No, there are two types of form one for individual and second for corporate.

Q: Tax is applicable on premium prize bond?

A: Yes, WHT is applicable on profit as well as prize money.

(Filers) Persons appearing in ATL , rate of WHT shall be 15%.

(Non-Filers) Persons not appearing in ATL, rate of WHT shall be 30%.

Q: Is Zakat applicable on premium prize bond?

A: Premium prize bond is exempted from Zakat

Q: What is the highest prize of the premium prize bond?

A: Highest Prize of the premium prize bond of Rs. 40,000/- is Rs. 80 million and for Rs. 25,000/- highest prize is Rs. 30 million.

Q: Is the holding period the same for all Premium Prize Bond denominations?

A: Yes — the holding period is 2 months for all PPB denominations (Rs.25,000, Rs.40,000, and Rs.100,000).

National Savings Bonds

Q: Why date of issue is important for any claim of prize money?

A: Only those prize bonds qualify for prize money, which have been issued two months prior to their respective draw.

Q: After how many days of draw prize money claim can be lodged?

A: The claim can be lodged usually after 4 to 5 working days from the date of draw and within six years from the date of relevant draw.

Q: Whether one prize bond winning prize money two times in different draws will be paid prize money two times on the same date or otherwise?

A: Claim against prize bond winning in two different draws can be lodged at the same time against two separate claim application by the holder within the period of Six years from the date of its relevant draws.

Q: Why the small investors don't win prize and big prizes goes to big investors?

A: Big investors invest in huge amounts and buy more prize bonds; therefore their probability of winning prize money is greater than the individual who buys a single prize bond. However, draw is held separately for each prize and small investor can win big prize.

Q: Is there any way to ensure that the prize bond purchased would win a prize?

A: The chances of winning Prize Money is always there but cannot be ensured.

Q: Why the prize money on the winning number is not paid very next day?

A: Due to preliminary preparation printing, dispatch of list of prize winning bonds to all concerned NSCs which usually take three to four days.

Q: Why National savings or the State Bank of Pakistan does not stop the payment of prize money against prize bond reported lost?

A: Prize bond is a bearer instrument. Its ownership belongs to the holder of the instrument just like currency notes.

Q: What are the Guidelines for application forms of all denominations of Prize Bonds?

A: The prize money up to Rs. 1,250/- can be claimed from any National Savings Centre, branches of authorized scheduled banks or branches of the State Bank of Pakistan. Prize money exceeding Rs. 1,250/- can be claimed only from the branches of the State Bank of Pakistan.

To claim the prize money, fill the prescribed Form available at www.savings.gov.pk

along-with following documents.

Photocopy of valid CNIC

Winning prize bond (original)

Photo copy of the prize-winning bond duly signed by the applicant on back side.

Q: Are there any charges of prize money claim form?

A: No, there are no charges.

Q: Can we claim prize money of damaged bond?

A: Yes, Subject to clearance under rules.

Q: What is the procedure of Prize Bonds draw? Is the process of draw fair and transparent?

A: Prize bond draw is held by a committee constituted by Central Directorate of National Savings and open to general public. Winning prize bonds are drawn through Hand operated draw machine, which is usually operated by special children in front of Committee members and general public attending the draw ceremony. Draw machine is also checked by general public before the start of draw.

Q: Whether one can attend draw ceremony?

A: Yes, general public may also attend the prize bond draw ceremony on production of original CNIC.

Q: Is there any way to ensure that the prize bond purchased would win a prize?

A: No

Q: How many numbers of Prize Bonds are in a series?

A: One less in one million (999,999)

Q: From where we can get Prize Bonds?

A: Prize bonds can be purchased and encashed in any quantity at all field offices of SBP BSC (Bank), office of National Saving Centers, and designated branches of commercial banks.

Q: Is there any limit on the purchase of Prize Bonds?

A: No, there is no limit.

Q: What is the encashment procedure?

A: To present original prize bond at the counters of SBP BSC Offices, Commercial Banks and National Savings Centers and get face value thereof.

Q: In which denominations are prize bonds available?

A: Presently, the Govt. of Pakistan is offering prize bonds having face value:

100

200

750

1500

25000 (Premium Prize Bonds) Registered

40000 (Premium Prize Bonds) Registered

Q: Which prize bond is entitled to winning a prize?

A: All prize bonds issued at least 60 days prior to the draw date are entitled for winning a prize.

Q: What is the schedule of draw?

A: The Schedule of draw contains Draw No, Place & date of draw.

Q: What is the validity period of a prize bond?

A: A prize bond remains valid till the scheme termination.

Q: What is the valid time period for claiming a prize?

A: Maximum time period to avail the prize is six years from the date of draw.

Q: How much tax would be deducted if I win a prize?

A: 30% for non-filers against the prize money.15% for filers against the prize amount is deducted at source at the time of payment of prize money.

Q: How can I claim the amount of Prize money?

A: To claim for your prize, you need to fill in the claim form and submit it along with a copy of your NIC to the State Bank of Pakistan. The claim form is also available at our website for downloading.

Q: What does the term shut period mean?

A: 60 days prior to a draw, the State Bank and other authorized organization stop selling the prize bonds of that particular denomination. This period of 60 days is called the shut period. Usually prize bonds are traded at open market rates during this time.

Q: From where can I purchase and sell prize bonds?

A: You can buy and sell these instruments from any National Savings Centers, State Bank of Pakistan before shut period.

Q: How would I know the draw date for any denomination?

A: State Bank of Pakistan issues a schedule of draw dates for each year which is available at www.savings.gov.pk full details.

Q: Where can I get draw results?

A: You can get full draw list from www.Savings.gov.pk

Location, Entry & Timings

Q: Where is the SBP BSC branch located?

A: search it on the web

Q: What are the public counter timings for dealing?

A: 01 30 mon to thurs and 01 on frid

Counter & Token System (Counters aur Tokens)

Q: Where can I get a token upon arrival?

A: Token Machine

Q: Is there a separate counter for senior citizens or females?

A: No separate counter, but senior citizens and women are given priority dealing without waiting in the regular queue — confirmed as actively followed in practice.

Q: Where is the counter for fresh currency notes or bond encashment?

A: u can make your own... 18-19 e-kyc, 20-21 Small prize money, 22 Sale tythrough cheque , 26- premium sale and enchasment, 30- national sale and encash

Q: On average, how long does a customer wait before reaching the counter?

A: 15 to 20 minutes on an average day.

Claim Processing & Services (Claims aur Submissions)

Q: How long does it take to process a prize bond claim?

A: Same day up to Rs.18,500. For higher amounts, the exact settlement working days are still not confirmed (pending verification).

Q: Can someone else submit a claim on my behalf?

A: no

Q: How long does it take for a bond to come back from PSPC for genuineness confirmation?

A: A minimum of 30 days.

Lost or Damaged Bond

Q: What should I do if my prize bond is lost, stolen, or damaged?

A: fir + indemnity bond

Transfer Ownership

Q: How can I transfer the ownership of a prize bond to another person?

A: just come to bsc office submit application

Document & Process Guidance Queries

Q: What are the most common reasons a claim is rejected at the counter?

A: Incomplete documents or wrong/incorrect information provided.

Location, Office, & Counter Routing Queries

Q: Does this office ask for anything extra beyond the official document list?

A: No, nothing extra is required beyond the official document list.

Q: Do all SBP BSC branches follow the same document checklist?

A: Yes — other branches follow the same checklist.

Death Case (Legal Heirs Claim):

Q: Are Death Case claims escalated to a senior officer, or can regular counter staff handle them directly?

A: Regular counter staff can handle Death Case claims directly — they are not escalated to a senior officer.